INTERESTING ITEMS FROM EL VERANO AND VICINITY.

Weekly Record of all the Happenings in His Town as Faithfully Recorded by Our Wide-Awake Reporter, "Archie McKiver."

E. Mullen visited in San Francisco Sunday.

Mrs. T. H. Baines and son Norman are visiting in San Jose.

W. Hart of Martinez is spending the week visiting friends here.

L. L. Lewis, wife and daughter left for San Francisco last Thursday.

John Mulcahy of San Francisco is a guest at Paul Vannucci's resort.

John Serres Jr. is spending the week with relatives in the Bay City.

Frank Lahaye of the metropolis spent Sunday at his beautiful summer cottage here.

Miss Alberta Weaver of Berkeley is the guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. Al Weaver.

Mrs. Sarah Baines, accompanied by Leo Baines, spent the latter part of last week in San Francisco.

Louis De Faunt, a well known and popular barber of San Francisco, is spending the week in our burg.

A large number of summer people are here this week and our hotels are being filled with pleasure seekers.

A crack ball game will be played here next Sunday between the locals and the Glen Ellen nine and a lively game is expected.

Leo Fitzpatrick, a traveling salesman for Brittain & Co., San Francisco, was a guest at the McCloskey residence Sunday.

The Boyes Springs Postoffice has been made a money order office. Postmaster H. D. Graham is the popular official in charge.

Albert Rossi has purchased a fine new saddle horse on which he will use his imported Visalia saddle in broncho busting this summer.

Austin Moore, our well known teamster, is busy these days unloading several carloads of lumber for the Peterson lumber yard at this place.

Mrs. S. Stafford, accompanied by her sister, Miss Maud McCloskey of the metropolis, spent Saturday and Sunday at her artistic bungalow south of town.

P. W. Hawkinson of the metropolis has sold out his chicken ranch, which is located out in the New Jerusalem, to a Hebrew capitalist from San Francisco.

A colored parson was the big thing in town last Tuesday. It is said that this gentleman was looking for a location to start a church and also a home for his colored folks.

H. Hollar of Concord, Cal., has opened up a suit cleaning establishment in the Chas. Danieli building. Mr. Hollar is an experienced cleaner and should be patronized by our people.

An extra passenger train passed through here last Sunday. Chas. Taber, the popular and well known conductor is running this extra train, which will be kept on during the summer season.

Harry Earl of the Riverside Hotel is making arrangements to build some neat summer cottages, also to put up a number of tents on his beautiful grounds at this popular resort.

A large number of charming young ladies from San Francisco are registered this week at the different summer resorts. We notice that quite a few of the locals had their top buggies out last Sunday and now the good old summer time is on.

Charley Horn, the Mission white hope, is spending the week at Crane's hotel. Charley, under the management of Tom McGrath, is expected to some day to face the top notchers of the roped arena in the heavyweight division. Mr. Horn will remain here for several weeks.

The heavyweight 10-round bout which was pulled off in San Francisco last Friday evening between the two white hopes, Chas. Miller and Soldier Elder, resulted in a draw. Miller, who had trained at Parente's Villa, was given a raw decision by the referee after having won throughout the contest. He was in town last Sunday and looked little the worse for his fight.

Mrs. Emile Cornelius and little son of Sonoma are visiting in Valjejo this week.

Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan passed through town last Tuesday enroute to Sonoma with the prisoner wanted for burglarizing the Oaks Hotel.

Jim, Tom and Leo Baines autted to the Fowler creek on a fishing expedition last Wednesday. The boys went as far as the falls and each got a nice mess of speckled beauties.

A number of our prominent young bloods were joy riding last Sunday night. Rumor has it that they went to Petaluma, but anyhow they got back home before morning.

Postmaster Wilson of Kenwood, accompanied by Al Benham, popular drummer for Wellman-Peck Co., wholesale grocery firm, was in town Monday in the former's new benzine car.

A large crowd of San Francisco tailors held their annual reunion and picnic at Boyes Hot Springs last Sunday. Over two hundred people came up on the morning train and participated in the event and all reported a fine time.

Miss Ruby McCloskey of San Francisco, after spending several days here with relatives, returned to her home in the city Sunday. Miss McCloskey is much pleased with our valley and expects to make another visit here later on.

A well-known El Verano local while driving a young lady around in a rubber-tired rig last Sunday was hit by an auto, which was being driven by a lady near Boyes Springs. A bad accident was narrowly averted. We would advise this young blood to pay more attention to his horse in future and not so much to his lady friend.

One of our well known politicians has gone to hard graft. This man was one of the leaders for the "drys" in the recent election and was seen going through town last Monday on a big harvest wagon loaded with hay. He has evidently given up the idea of being a political boss and a ruler of the valley.

One evening last week, while on his father's ranch above town, Mike Manuck tied a fine young horse to a wheel-barrow while he went to catch another horse. The young steed became frightened and ran away, wheel-barrow and all bringing up in a barbed wire fence. The animal was badly cut, and although a veterinary surgeon was immediately sent for it is doubtful if the animal will recover.

The grand opening of the El Verano Villa, which was held last Saturday evening, packed the hall to overflowing. The dance hall was tastefully decorated and the Peebles orchestra of San Francisco furnished the music. The floor managers were August Marcy and Jap Valente and all report a good time. Mr. Lamotte has made arrangements to hold these grand balls every Saturday evening during the season.

"Easy Jim," the popular reporter at Vineburg, in his last week's items drew the attention of the El Verano correspondent in his article "to take notice." Yes, "Easy," I got you, and if you see any of our girls or boys down that way, just give them some write up and I will do likewise to any of your charming young people who happen to butt in on my territory, and ladies especially.

TOM RICHARDS IN TOILS OF LAW

Arrested on Charge of Disturbing the Peace—Becomes Obstreperous in Judge Campbell's Court and is Sent to Jail for Twenty-Four Hours

Tom Richards of Agua Caliente Springs was arrested last Saturday by Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan, on complaint of Mrs. George Fetters, charged with disturbing the peace. It is alleged in the complaint that Richards met the complainant at the Caliente depot and used vile and insulting language to her, hence the complaint and arrest.

Shortly after being placed under arrest young Richards was taken before Judge Campbell, and held to answer to the charge by his honor with bail fixed at $250. F. T. Duhring and Mrs. Richards qualifying on the bond.

After being held to answer Richards became very boisterous in court and attempted to run things with a high hand. He was admonished several times by Judge Campbell to sit down and keep quiet. This he refused to do, whereupon Judge Campbell declared the prisoner guilty of contempt of court and ordered Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan to lock him up for twenty-four hours and he was thrust in durance vile to serve out his sentence. This was done, but not without Fred Duhring entering a protest on behalf of the prisoner, claiming the Judge had no legal right to send the young man to jail. The Judge, however, intimated that he could not be intimidated by an outsider. That he knew the law and to jail Richards must go.

The examination of Richards on the malicious mischief charge, who served out his contempt of court sentence Sunday afternoon, was set by Judge Campbell for Wednesday afternoon.

Burglar Held to Answer

P. Pera, recently arrested by Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan, on suspicion of being the burglar who entered the home of M. Chelini on Second-street West, one night last week, had his preliminary hearing before Justice Campbell, on Friday afternoon of last week and was held to answer to a charge of burglary with bail fixed at $1000. Failing to give bonds, Pera was taken to Santa Rosa and lodged in the county jail pending his trial in the Superior Court. Chelini claims that Pera got away with $25 in cash and other loot.

AN OPEN LETTER FROM VINEBURG

Defends its District School Trustees From an Unjust and Uncalled for Attack From the Muck-raking Newspaper

Ed. Index-Tribune: Sonoma Valley's "Red Light" journal, the Expositor, after defaming and abusing the leading citizens of the northern end of the valley during the recent Local Option contest, has now invaded peaceful Vineburg in an article published in its issue of last Friday under the signature of "The Committee." The article in question, after inviting the public to a Sunday School picnic, ends by criticizing and censuring our Board of School Trustees for not allowing "the committee" whoever they may be, to utilize the Huichica public school house for political purposes.

We believe the School Trustees did permit "the committee" to hold Sunday School in the school house so long as there was no effort made to instill into the minds of the children politics and anarchy—such doctrines as rooting up our vineyards in the interest of prohibition and all such nonsense.

The Board of School Trustees of the district as now constituted is composed of the following gentlemen:

Frederick Batto, a member of the shipping and commission firm of John Batto & Sons Inc., and a man well and favorably known in business circles all over the state.

August Rouquie, a young orchardist and a resident of this section for twenty-eight years, both he and Mr. Batto being graduates years ago of the Sonoma Grammar School.

Enrico Forni, one of our most respected and enterprising citizens, who has devoted the past fifteen years toward improving this section of the valley.

Now, let "The Committee" bear in mind that the honesty, sobriety and integrity of these gentlemen have never been questioned and that our school is perfectly safe in their hands, and they want no advice from any "committee" as they are self-made men.

If this self-styled "committee" want to run a school district let it go where it came from. We will not mess it.

Yours sincerely,
Belle Brandon.

Father's Day.

Now, that the women of California have been rightfully given the ballot and are making good citizens, it has commenced to dawn upon many of the lords of creation that their women folks, as a rule, are making intelligent voters and really have minds of their own. The sphere of our wives and daughters is expanding in the business and political world and things are the better that this is so. "Men," says a writer on this subject, "have been allowed to fall into the habit of thinking that mother can bring up the children and I will run the crops and politics, so that the whole home situation has become lopsided. Women need to take a little more political responsibility and men a little more moral responsibility of the home, and thus get things into better balance. It is this sentiment that has brought about the observance of Father's Day on June 18th, and inaugurated two years ago in more than a thousand cities in the United States. Mothers' Day falls on the Sunday nearest May 15th, and has become a fixed date in our history. So it will be with Father's Day, as it is expected to be generally acknowledged all over the country through the aid of the Woman's Clubs.

Fathers' Day is an admirable innovation. Any sentiment that can be brought to bear upon the fathers of the country impressing them with the responsibilities resting upon them and the moral obligations to their children awaiting them, will be a well-fought battle. Women need to take a little more political responsibility and men a little more moral responsibility of the home, and thus get things into better balance.

A Popular Appointment.

The appointment of Jesse Prestwood as a member of the Sonoma County Board of Education, the other day, by Supervisor Blair Hart and his fellow members of the Board, was a fitting acknowledgment of the true worth of Mr. Prestwood in affairs educational, and one, too, that will meet with the unanimous endorsement of every citizen in the Sonoma Valley.

Mr. Prestwood has been identified with school affairs in this city for many years. As a youth he graduated from the Sonoma Grammar School and later on from the Sonoma High School. He then removed to his home near Guerneville, but after an absence of several years was called here to take the principalship of our local Grammar School, in the management of which he has made good. During his long residence among us outside of his school duties, which are by no means a sinecure, he has taken an active part in the civic betterment of both town and valley, and his services in work of that kind has always been cheerfully and willingly given.

The Board of Supervisors in making this appointment have shown themselves to be above party when it comes to recognizing true worth in educational matters, for he is known a majority of its members are Republicans, while Mr. Prestwood and Supervisor Blair Hart, who urged his appointment, are Democrats.

Dr. E. Z. Hennessey and Joe Kronberg, two of Napa City's solid men, visited Vineburg on Sunday last and were welcome guests.

Mr. Hauer, boss cooper of the Gundlach-Bundschu Wine Co., was shaking hands with friends here Sunday, and in the evening visited El Verano.

Edward Mitchell of San Francisco blew in here Sunday and returned the same day to his city home. Ever welcome, pleasant Edward.

Mrs. L. V. Riddle of San Francisco, accompanied by Miss Catharine Hyde, visited her father, Frank Kennedy, at Vineyard Villa on Sunday.

Carl Selinger, a well-known merchant of the Bay City, and family were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Groskopf, Sr., at Whispering Pines.

Vineburg was well represented at the grand opening dance at the El Verano Villa on Saturday last by two of our society men, our Willie and Smiling Curley, who report a swell time.

Henry Pape, our local painter and well-known steward of Pleasant Villa, has secured the contract to paint and decorate the new Silverstein building on Broadway near the One-Mile House.

Chris Rubke, cellarmaster of the Gundlach-Bundschu Wine Co. of San Francisco, visited friends and relatives in this vicinity Sunday. His many friends were glad to see him. Call again, Uncle Chris.

The Schwabischer Leiderkranz of San Francisco, a German singing society, was the guest of one of its members, Carl Weisshaar at the One-Mile House, on Sunday last. About fifty guests were present and the time was spent in singing, dancing and feasting, and before returning to their city homes all voted Carl Weisshaar the prince of hosts.

Easy Jim:

Well, I am back again after a visit to the northern part of the county and, well, I think it all looks good to me, but it is not all dear old Sonoma Valley. Yes, I enjoyed myself. I always do, but I am glad to be home again. The other day I called on some of my old chums and I heard lots of news.

Some one told me that Jimmie Modini has let the contract for the building of his moving picture show house to Pete Basaglia of Sonoma. It will be a reinforced concrete, a class A building, fireproof, made out of coil oil cans and guaranteed under the pure food law of June 30, 1906.

Easy, who was that tall, distinguished looking gentleman you were speaking to on the veranda of the Pleasant Villa on Sunday afternoon last? I would like to win him. But, oh! sorrow, I hear he is won already. Just my luck. I wonder who the fortunate young lady is who won the prize?

I hear there is quite a flutter in social circles in the vicinity of Goo Goo avenue and Starlight way—that Ethel Eastlake and Jim Small never speak as they pass by. Well, I think it was mean of Ethel to bawl out Jim and his pink-haired widow, for the saddest part of the affair is when he went to call on her the last time she told him to float, and he has no life preserver. Poor Jim—after all these years.

A fair exchange is no robbery. I understand that in a short time one of the fair maidens of El Verano will change her name and reside in Vineburg, and that one of Vineburg's bright daughters will become the leading lady at a swell El Verano bungalow. Good bye, I'm sleepy. Yours, Minnie Madden.

This burg can now say that everything is coming its way, as since the election business was disposed of satisfactorily, improvements and an unusual amount of activity is observed on every side. On Sunday last a large number of people alighted from the ten trains traveling north and south and all report that Vineburg is all right and everything peaceful.

EASY JIM.

Vineburg, June 5, 1912.

Hair Falling?

You certainly cannot lose your hair and keep it, too. Which shall it be? Lose? Then do nothing. Keep? Then use Ayer's Hair Vigor. That is about all there is to it. Ayer's Hair Vigor is also a splendid hair-dressing and hair-tonic. It keeps the hair soft and smooth and greatly promotes its growth. It does not color the hair. Consult your doctor freely. Doctors are studying these hair questions much more than in former days.

SNEAK THIEF POSES AS A WAITER

Secures Job at "The Oaks," and Robs the Guests Right and Left, and is Now in Toils of the Law.

Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan made another clever capture Monday when he arrested Andrew Walsh on suspicion of burglarizing the rooms of a number of guests at "The Oaks," a resort owned by Mrs. Farrell near Boyes Springs. About a week before his arrest, Walsh was engaged by Mrs. Farrell to wait upon table. Immediately after assuming his duties a number of guests complained that their rooms had been entered and valuables of all kinds stolen. Officer Ryan was notified and lay for the room thief, with the result that on Monday he arrested Walsh with the goods on him and placed him in the lock-up here to answer to a charge of burglary.

The officer recovered a vast quantity of loot consisting of a set of silverware, carpenter's tools, jewelry, table cloths and other things. The only articles stolen by Walsh which the officer has failed to recover is a valuable gold watch and chain. The prisoner is evidently an old offender and no doubt accepted the job of waiting on table for the purpose of robbing the guests.

Death of Thos. Hopper, Retired Banker and Pioneer.

Thomas Hopper, for sixty-two years a resident of Sonoma county, passed away at his home in Santa Rosa last Monday at the age of 92 years.

In the early fifties Mr. Hopper located in this valley and engaged in the stock business. Later he became a banker, in which he amassed a big fortune. For many years he has lived in Santa Rosa, where he was a familiar sight on the streets. Tom Hopper, as he was called by all his old-time friends, was widely known throughout this section of the state. He is survived by a small army of children, grand children and great grand children. The funeral of deceased took place in Santa Rosa Wednesday.

Wild West Show Big Success

The wild west show was largely attended on the Sonoma Driving Club's race track last Sunday. The silver cup donated by A. E. Tower was awarded Miss Florence Mann of Agua Caliente, who proved herself an expert horsewoman indeed, as she barred not even the men folks from entering into the contest with her for the cup. Geo. Carpenter, a local bronco buster and who is no slouch on a mustang, had the temerity to enter into the contest against Miss Mann and got stung for his pains, as the lady rider put it all over him. Miss Mann rode "Pegasus," a saddle horse from Ray Buton's Woodleaf Stables, Boyes Springs. When the other women riders who had entered for the race learned that Miss Mann was to compete for the trophy they refused to ride against a sure winner, hence her deft to the men riders. She won the race, a quarter of a mile dash, easily in nineteen seconds and made no effort to get the maximum speed from her horse. Miss Mann is instructor in horsemanship riding at the Woodleaf livery stables.

The gate receipts overreached expectations and taking it all in all the initial Wild West Show was a big success.

Agua Caliente, Cal., May 9th, 1912. To the Editor of the Index-Tribune, Sonoma, Cal.:

Dear Sir: It has been stated by certain parties that I took a great interest in the late election and made every endeavor to make this district dry. Those same parties have tried in every manner possible to misrepresent and injure me in my business in the past, and I take this means to inform the public that I have done and used every effort in my power to prevent the district from going dry.

I make this statement to remove those false impressions that are being scattered broadcast in the last few days.

Yours truly,
THEODORE RICHARDS.

Electrical Storm.

Sonoma Valley was the scene of a vivid electrical storm Wednesday night. With the discharge of the noiseless heavenly artillery came flashes of lightning which zig-zagged and shot athwart a moonless sky that was at times terrifying to the timid.

It is seldom California is subject to this heavenly phenomena. There was a similar visitation several years ago which was general throughout the State, but the electrical storm of 1874 was one never to be forgotten. It lasted throughout an entire night and was one of the first of its kind Californians have ever experienced.

Few people retired for the night during its continuance as the blinding flashes of lightning coming from every quarter of the heavens lighted up the sky as bright as day.

Sonoma Valley People Have Had the Warmest Weather Known in this Section for Years

The weather the past week has been a scorcher and record-breaker for June or for any other month for that matter. Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday were without a doubt the four consecutive hottest days ever recorded in Sonoma, the thermometer registering over the 100 degree mark in the shade. The result has been our merchants have been doing a land office business in ice chests and the ice man has been in his glory the past week. The warm spell has brought thousands of visitors to the valley, which is now in the midst of what promises to be a splendid season for our hotels and resorts.
